

Preparing your business for European expansion

National Space Centre
Exploration Drive
Leicester
Leicestershire LE4 5NS

Wednesday 18 November 2009
5.15 pm - 8.00 pm

Preparing your business for European expansion

Date: Wednesday
18 November 2009

Venue: National Space Centre
Exploration Drive
Leicester, LE4 5NS

Programme	Speakers
17h15 Registration and refreshments	David Parish is a Director within Tenon's Business Services team.
18h00 Welcome and introduction	<ul style="list-style-type: none">David joined Tenon in 1993 having qualified with KPMG Leicester in 1988. He was appointed an Audit Director in 2003 and was appointed to the board of Tenon Audit Limited to serve as National Compliance Director in November 2008.He manages a substantial portfolio of owner managed businesses delivering both audit and advisory services.David is a Technical Director for Tenon East Midlands, working closely with the national technical team in developing Tenon's approach towards the introduction of new accounting and auditing standards. He prepares and presents Tenon's six monthly technical updates for clients.
18h10 Your route into Europe David Parish, Business Services Director, Tenon <ul style="list-style-type: none">What is your proposition, your USP?What is the market for your business within Europe?What are the methods for expanding your business across Europe?What does it cost? This session will include round table discussions and feedback	Jacky Kinsey is an Associate Director in Tenon's Tax team. <ul style="list-style-type: none">Jacky has a wide variety of UK and international tax experience and considerable understanding of the taxation implications of mergers and acquisitions.Prior to joining Tenon Jacky qualified as a Chartered Accountant with Price Waterhouse and subsequently joined Allied Domecq plc (world's second largest spirits & wine company) where she spent 10 years and progressed to the position of Group International Tax Manager.
19h10 How can tax and financing impact on your European plans? Jacky Kinsey, Associate Tax Director and Phil Jeffrey, VAT Director, Tenon <ul style="list-style-type: none">Starting up - options for set-up and structureEmploying people throughout EuropeBringing your profits back to the UKMinimising the tax costs of buying and selling goods and services across EuropeCurrent VAT issues including what you need to know about January 2010 changes	Phil Jeffrey is Head of Tenon's VAT consultancy in the East Midlands. <ul style="list-style-type: none">Phil has worked exclusively in VAT since joining H M Customs and Excise in 1983 as a VAT Control Officer in London.He advises on all aspects of VAT and has regular involvement in the area of land and property, where he advises developers, investors and occupiers as well as clients in the construction industry.Phil was Chairman of the East Midlands Chapter of the Vat Practitioners Group between 1995 and 1999, and has been an Associate of the Institute of Indirect Taxation since its inception, where he has been an examiner for VAT for several years.
19h40 Question and answer session
20h00 Close and networking

Cost £49.45 (inclusive of VAT @15%) Free for emita members

To book go to www.emita.org.uk

or call the emita helpline: 0115 947 1767

